Special Presentation by Marc Liebman:
Mines & Iran – Déjà Vu All Over Again!

The recent mine incidents in the Arabian Gulf were not the first ones. During the Tanker Wars of the 1980s, Iran dumped mines into the shipping channels of the Arabian Gulf as a way to disrupt the flow of oil. The U.S. responded by re-flagging tankers so that any one that was damaged, was an American ship and gave us the right to protect these ships. Marc will cover the history, recent events and their implications for the present and the future of shipping in the Arabian Gulf.
